

Northwest Mallet Camp 2017

At the Broadway Center for Performing Arts in Downtown Tacoma, WA

for percussion students ages 10-19

June 26-28, Mon- Wed, 2017

Directed by Amy Putnam

with faculty Jeff Lund, Kendra McLean, Memmi Ochi

Guest Artist: Dr. Patrick Roulet

Special thanks to our sponsors A. PUTNAM MALLETS, Yamaha

the Tacoma Youth Symphony Association, and the Tacoma Symphony Orchestra

June 26- 28, Mon-Wed – 10:30am-4:30pm, Broadway Center, Studio 2

Full Registration Fee - $200.00 Includes a set of marimba or timpani mallets & custom bag

Early Bird Registration before April 15 - $180.00 (paid in full)

Deposit only- $50.00, balance due before June 26 – please note that refunds for cancellation can be made until June 1, 2016. After this date, the deposit will not be returned.

Class topics will include:

- Marimba and vibe techniques & tone for 2 and 4 mallet playing
- Mallet Design and Creation Competition- with prizes awarded to the winning teams!
- Marimba repertoire, performed in a lab class setting
- Music theory & ear training for percussionists, 101-301 (three levels)
- Guest Artist Masterclasses on ragtime xylophone styles with drumset

Elementary, middle & high school students in grades 5-12 (ages 10-19) as well as percussion enthusiasts of all ages are welcome. Prior percussion experience required (1yr minimum). There is NO AUDITION. Classes will be split into Beginning, Intermediate and Advanced levels for theory and other performance-based topics based on teacher recommendations and student questionnaires.

Questions? Ask Amy, aputnammallets@gmail.com or call 206-354-3456 or check up to date info at www.facebook.com/NorthwestMalletCamp

Register online at www.eventbrite.com

